Sandy Lantz has been teaching elementary music in Lee County, Florida since 1982. She received a BME from Eastern Kentucky University and successfully completed the American Orff-Schulwerk training courses in levels I, II and III and Master Level. Sandy has been a clinician and presenter at workshops in Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, State and National Orff Conferences. In 2004, Sandy was honored with the award of "Florida Music Educator of the Year". In 2007, Sandy became a National Board Certified Teacher.

Gretchen Wahlberg has been teaching elementary music for over 30 years and is currently in the Lee County School District. She has presented numerous workshops around the country with Sandy Lantz, as well as AOSA National Conferences. She has served as President of the SW Fl. Orff Chapter. Gretchen is a national Board Certified Music Teacher and this year was selected at Florida Elementary Music Teacher of the Year.

Sandy Lantz and Gretchen Wahlberg

Friday, September 23rd
6pm-10:00pm

Saturday, September 24th
9am- 4:00pm

"Roses are red, Violets are blue, The summer is over, now what do I do?"

Start your year off with this high energy and fun-filled weekend of Orff! Using folk and multi-cultural materials, children's literature and drumming activities, participants will be led through a menagerie of process-taught and kid-tested lessons. These lessons will include ideas for assessment, recorder and dance instruction, and creating new extensions of given repertoire. "Roses are red, Violets are blue, after this workshop - you'll know what to do!"

Please bring your soprano recorder, a small stuffed animal, a hand-drum and soft mallet.
CEU credits available .4/ .6 or 1.

Check with your LEA regarding credit acceptance.
